

NOTICE OF RACE/Sailing Instructions

Sailfest 2022

August Series: 8/5, 8/12, 8/19, 8/26

AMENDED ON 8/9/22 (CHANGES NOTED IN RED)

The Seattle Sailing Club is hosting a series of Casual Racing in an effort to provide a more relaxed racing opportunity for cruisers, racers, liveboards, and dinghies. Skippers will take their own finish times, and submit them to the website for scoring.

It's FINALLY back! Sailfest returns to Shilshole Bay Marina & Seattle Sailing Club! Sailfest is a fun, FREE, racing event hosted by Seattle Sailing Club every Friday night in August. Everyone in the marina with a boat is invited to take part! Bring your friends, family, and coworkers along on August 5th, 12th, 19th, and 26th. Check-in at the committee boat between 6:30pm - 6:45pm to let us know you're here for the fun.

After the races, head back to the promenade with your dish for shore-side festivities, food, and drinks!

Race Committee Communications

RC will monitor and communicate via VHF channel 69.

Race Starts

Warning @ 6:55pm

7:00pm - Flying Sails Start

7:05pm - Non-Flying Sails Start

5-minute start sequence

Class Flag @ 5 minutes

Prep Flag @ 4 minutes

Prep Flag Down @ 1 minute

Class Flag Down @ 0 minutes & GO!

COURSE INSTRUCTIONS

Start/Finish is ALWAYS UPWIND between Committee Boat (The red Seattle Sailing Club Zodiac, will be calling the start of the race @ 7:00p) and the STYC start mark (round white buoy located due west of the breakwater)..

Round marks to PORT.

Northerly Course: Start → Meadow Pt. Buoy → Green Ship Canal Buoy → Finish

Southerly Course: Start → Green Ship Canal Buoy → Meadow Pt. Buoy → Finish

Races will consist of one lap.

Rules: This race is governed by the current Racing Rules of Sailing except as modified by these Instructions. There will be no protesting, no yelling, and no contact between boats. Boats of a greater sailing ability are required to go out of their way to avoid boats of a lesser ability.